Dear Members

Another very eventful and pleasing year has passed by and we are now at the doorstep of welcoming the New Year ১৯৩৩ শক with full vigor and gaiety. Being away from our motherland during this festive season is quite painful, but we have to live with it due to our practical compulsions. This has made our resolve even stronger to do everything possible so that none of us miss anything. Especially, it is our responsibility to let our children grow in an aura full of our rich culture.

Bohag Bihu, also known as Rongali Bihu, is the Assamese New Year and is observed for three days as per the traditional Assamese Calendar.

The first day of the Rongali Bihu New Year celebrations which falls on the last day of Assamese month 'Chait' is known as 'Goru Bihu' (the festival of cow). In 2011, the date of Goru Bihu is April 14. The second day of Bohag Bihu celebrations is known as 'Manuh Bihu' (the festival for the people).

Rongali Bihu or Bohag Bihu is observed on the first of Bohag month. In 2011, the date of Bohag Bihu is April 15. The third day of Assamese New Year Bihu celebrations is known as 'Gosain Bihu (God's bihu). In 2011, the date of Gosain Bihu is April 16.

This year with the active and whole-hearted participation & co-operation from all of you, we are planning to celebrate the 'Bohag Bihu' in a befitting manner with all the ingredients and flavor of our tradition & culture. The celebration will start on 'Prathom Bohag' (15th April 2011) with Khel-Dhemali and delicious Jalpaan & Assamese Lunch and will culminate with a grand Cultural Extravaganza on 29th of Bohag (13th of May 2011, Friday). Smt. Santa Uzir, the renowned vocalist from Assam accompanied by her husband and successful music director Sri Bhupen Uzir are expected to entertain us with an array of melodies along with performances from our own pool of talented members. A detailed program will be communicated to you nearer the time.

Please go to the next page for the detailed program for 'Prathom Bohag' Celebration.
